On her death certificate she is shown as 36 years, this should have been 29 years - On her marriage to William Goodall it is shown as 28 years when it should have been 23 Years - For some reason she must have decided to be older hence after eight years of marriage she was thought to be 36.

Also on the death certificate she is shown as the wife of Ernest Goodall - I believe this is actually her brother in law - perhaps for some reason he reported the death ?

I have checked all the GRO records of deaths & marriages many times over the last few years and this is the only records that tie in without any reasonable doubt.

This also clarifies what my mother had said when I was a child "That she was eventually living with people who where not her parents" - so this would tie in with William marrying Sarah Sawyer.

Died in Fairburn cut (canal) on 5th September 1913, the coroners report held by Walter B Arundel at an inquest held on 8th September 1913 stated " Cast himself into the cut and was drowned, not being of sound mind did kill himself, "

Report from the "Pontefract & Castleford Gazette" dated Friday September 12th 1913.

A FAIRBURNS MANS SUICIDE

At the Old School, Fairburn on Monday at noon, Major Arundel, coroner, conducted an inquest on view of the body of Jas. Wn. Turnpenny (20)(James William), a miner of Cragg House, Fairburn, whose body was taken from the Cut on Sunday morning.

Elizabeth Amelia Turnpenny the widow, said that deceased left home on Friday at about 2.40pm saying he was going for a walk to the Boat Cabin. She did not see him again alive. The deceased was always cheerful. They had a few sharp words on Friday morning, but were all right when he left home in the afternoon. They had been married only a year and nine months. Fred Horton, farm labourer, Lumby Lane, deposed to having seen the deceased walking in the direction of the Cut on Friday afternoon. The deceased who was perfectly sober was jolly and said he was going to see the Ferryman - Evidence as to finding the unfortunate mans watch and chain on some barbed wire by the Cut side was given by Jno Thom Hunter coal miner and PS Jackson deposed to receiving the watch and chain on Saturday, and said that on Sunday at 11.45am he recovered the body from the Cut in 10 to 12 feet of water. The deceased was fully dressed excepting his cap. Witness added there was no doubt the deceased got into the Cut on the East side, and he could not have got in accidentally. The deceased brother Jack, when in the Army two years ago attempted to take his life by cutting his throat. The widow here identified the watch and chain produced as being her husbands.

The verdict was that the deceased drowned himself whilst of unsound mind.

(Note Jack was John Brown Turnpenny)
