Daily News. Saturday 20th May 1865

Shocking Case of Seduction & Death - An Inquiry into the death of Eliza Higgins aged 22. Thomas Turnpenny of 14, John Street, Commercial Road, said he was the landlord of the Chester Arms, Chester Street, Kennington Lane but by trade a printer and 62 years of age. He is a married man but does not know if his wife is alive or dead. She became his barmaid but started to live as man & wife for three years. Although he was responsible for mistreating her and not providing enough care while indulging himself with drink the verdict by the jury was death from consumption was by natural causes.

From the censuses he was a Printer most of his life and it looks as though he split from his wife before 1861. Perhaps he fell on hard times and she kicked him out !

Central Criminal Court - Old Bailey 19th September 1864 - Bigamy - Sentence 12 calendar months.

Daily News. Wednesday 21st September 1864. Central Criminal Court.

Before The Recorder. Thomas Turnpenny, 36, printer, pleaded guilty to an indictment, charging him with feloniously intermarrying with Charlotte Shepherd, his wife being at the time living. In the newspaper report he had two children by Henretta and one child by Charlotte. He was sent to prison for twelve months with hard labour.

The Times 21st Sept 1864.

Central Criminal Court, Sept 20. Old Court (before the recorder)

Thomas Turnpenny, 30, printer, pleaded "Guilty" to an indictment charging him with having feloniously married Charlotte Shepherd, his wife Sarah being alive. Mr Beasley prosecuted and Mr Sleigh defended. The recorder in passing sentence, said he was unable to discover from the depositions any mitigating circumstances in the case. On the contrary, the unfortunate second wife appeared now to be thrown upon the world with a child entirely dependent upon her for support. For his offence he must imprisoned and kept to hard labour for 12 calendar months.

Shown as a Widower on the 1881 Census and says he was born in the City of London. But Henretta is still alive - did they divorce ? They must have got back together after his prison sentence as they were together by C1891.

Type: Wife's petition [wx].. Divorce Court File: 16452. Appellant: Mabel Nellie Taylor (by her Guardian). Respondent: Walter Date: 1894. There was also two more ladies cited in the divorce papers - Florence M Harper & Jane Elizabeth Jackson his Niece.

From the Parish records of St. Annes Tottenham.

On the baptism of his daughter Lizzie on 7th November 1894 it says her father is an agent from 58, Blackway Lane. (Her mother died in 1892 and her father went to prison in June 1894).

Between 1888 and 1891 approx he was also known as "Westbrook"

Conclusion - They were divorced in 1894, after his prison sentence he must have gone up to Leicester to try and patch things up with Mabel and had another child, but at some time before his death he moved back to his fathers and stepmothers house in London, where he died. His wife and one son appear to have moved to Weston, where she and her son died.

Also note that all the Spouses shown were either from marriages, his court cases or divorce.

On the baptism of his son Sydney on the 20th March 1895 his name was recorded as Walter Daniel Timothy Turnpenny, Occupation Traveller also note this event occurred after he split from his wife Jane.
